PHS NEWS:

ATTENTION BULLDOG DRIVERS! This is a friendly reminder to always be respectful when parking off campus. Recently, there have been complaints from residents and management at surrounding communities about PHS students parking in marked or visitor spots, leaving trash, and being loud and disruptive at their community parks during lunch. This behavior does not reflect our PRIDE values and could possibly result in consequences such as towing and potential citations from IPD. To help prevent these issues, community management will be posting new signage about parking and towing will be enforced. It is important to follow the community rules when parking off campus and to always clean up after yourself. Please be mindful of your behavior and be respectful to the Irvine community.
